

The Singing Angels Festival Chorus: March 16, 2019

Dear _____,

Thank you for the support you give your child and their involvement in our music program. Our program would not be successful without outstanding students and parents. The work ethic that your student shows, both musically and as a young leader, is greatly appreciated. It is my pleasure to recognize these efforts with a recommendation to the Singing Angels Festival Chorus.

This choir will include many of Northeast Ohio's fine young singers. The music and administrative staff of The Singing Angels are the hosts of this event. Our guest clinician, soon to be announced, is one of northeast Ohio's leading choral conductors!
