Staff choreographer Allison Erni will teach the audition dance and then tape the audition dance at the end of the training session. This will be on the Facebook page "Singing Angel Choreography". You must "friend" this page and then Allison will add you to the list. Do not personally friend request her---use the Singing Angel Choreography page. We will also post on YouTube.

You may practice with this taped audition dance and then return on Sunday, February 10. At this time we will practice the dance again before performing it for the audition. After your actual audition, you may leave. We suggest that parents be in contact with your Angel by cell phone.

If you cannot attend the actual audition on Sunday, February 10, you will be judged by Allison only at the end of the first audition date on Sunday, February 3.

Dance Troupe auditions are open to all performing chorus Angels and apprentices. We encourage all Angels to audition. However, final dance troupes will be based on Junior and Senior dance troupe frontal dance requirements and needs. Boys who wish to participate in Dance Troupe do NOT need to attend auditions.
